

BA International Relations & Global Politics

Become a global citizen & thrive in the international relations field, from policy-making to media, non-governmental organizations, or more, with AUR's combination of theoretical analysis & hands-on, experiential learning in Rome, Italy.

The AUR difference

This program is designed to shape the next generation of leaders across many fields in international relations & politics. Your knowledge & perception of global politics, history, economics, & law will be enriched by AUR's diverse campus environment that focuses on cross-disciplinary learning, practical skills, & intercultural understanding.

Prepared to face the future

AUR graduates meet today's ever-growing demand for international experience & cultural sensitivity in an increasingly interconnected world. Given Rome's strategic location & AUR's ties to global professionals, expert faculty & multicultural community, you will have access to unmatched expertise, practical field experience, & networking opportunities.

Go beyond the classroom

With many international organizations headquartered in Rome, AUR's BA in International Relations & Global Politics complements the traditional classroom environment with site visits to leading organizations, cultural institutions, & foreign embassies for events & conferences. The program offers field trips throughout Italy and Europe to expand knowledge of international affairs through different social & political contexts in places like Berlin, Brussels, London, & Athens.

25+

on-site classes

8+ field trips

offered per year

BA INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS & GLOBAL POLITICS

Core Courses

IA 100 Intro to International Relations
IA 200 IR: Theories & Cases
IAPO 200 Research Seminar in Social Sciences
IA 201 Global Politics
IA 202 International Organizations
IA 203 US & Europe Since 1945
ECPO 204 The European Union
ECO 211 Principles of Macroeconomics
ECPO 318 International Political Economy
IAPO 499 International Relations Senior Thesis

Major Elective Clusters

AH 410 Art, Power, & Propaganda
BUS 302 International Business Law
COM 219 Intercultural Communication
IA 212 International Law of War & Peace
IA 307 International Human Rights
POL 304 Ethics & Global Politics
POL 314 Conflict & Peace in the Mediterranean
+Available Languages: Arabic, Mandarin, Russian

Internships & career development

Gain wide-ranging expertise & practical skills in international affairs by completing an internship at one of the following companies or organizations:

Amnesty International
Food & Agricultural Org. of the UN
Intl. Fund for Agricultural Development
Save the Children
The US Embassy
USAID

Potential Career Pathways:

Diplomatic Service Officer
Intelligence Analyst
International Aid Worker
Policy Officer
Political Risk Analyst
Public Affairs Consultant
Social Researcher

GLOBAL ALUMNI
NETWORK
across 75+ countries

"I could not have chosen a better place to study international affairs & politics! AUR has made me a critical thinker, equipped me with ample knowledge, helped me grow personally & professionally, & provided an unparalleled network of global friends."

Valerie Herring, IRGP '16

Senior Associate, Kekst CNC Communications Consultancy

The American University of Rome

+1 888 791 8327 (US) | +39 065 833 0919 (IT) | admissions@aur.edu | @allaboutAUR | www.aur.edu

